

NockWorks Innovations - Model Cancellation Form

Use this form only if you wish to cancel an applicable distance-sale contract. You may also cancel by sending a clear statement by email; use of this form is optional.

Your 14-day cancellation right

For most goods purchased online, you may cancel within 14 days after the day you, or someone you nominate, receives the goods. Tell us that you wish to cancel before the period ends, then return the goods without undue delay and within 14 days of notifying us. This does not affect your rights if goods are faulty, damaged, incorrect or not as described.

Some goods made genuinely to your individual specification or clearly personalised may be excluded from the statutory cancellation right. If this applies, it will be made clear on the relevant product page before you order.
